

MANAGER JEFFERSON HOPEFUL.

The Steamer Jane Moseley Will Start Out Under Bright Auspices Next Season—A Smaller Steamer For Short Trips Down the Potomac, For the Accommodation of Small Clubs, Societies, Etc.

It will not be overstating the case to say that Mr. Lewis Jefferson, the truck-farmer, and fertilizer contractor, and the manager of the Jane Moseley, is one of the most enterprising business men of the race in the District. Mr. Jefferson is an optimist, and sees the bright and hopeful side of every question. He is one of the few men of the race who has faith in his race, and has always been willing to invest his money in race enterprises when they have come to him in a way that meant business. Our correspondent asked him one day this week what was the outlook for river traffic and for the excursion season next year on the Potomac, and he replied promptly, "as far as the Jane Moseley is concerned we propose to do a banner business next year. Heretofore this boat has not had an equal chance, and has been late in the season of each year before charters could be had, or favorite dates secured for points down the Potomac. The company owning the boat has always been in litigation, and has not had an early start in the season to secure the best dates or charters. I have made some financial sacrifices, and so have a number of the stockholders of the Jane Moseley Boat Company, and it is now in shape and ready for business."

ALMOST A NEW BOAT.

"The Jane Moseley has been sent to Baltimore, where it is now docked, undergoing a complete overhauling, from the hull to the upper deck. Everything that money can pay for has been used to improve the gearing, and speed capacity of the boat, and it will be painted inside and out. When it returns to our wharf in February or March, it will look as spick and span as an Easter outfit.

"Our books are now open for charters for the next season, and we have under consideration a number of landings down the Potomac that will be suitable for small excursion parties, who do not desire to go to Glymont, Sommersett Beach or Rocky Point.

A Small Swift Steamer.

"In fact we are completing arrangements, if the business will justify it, to secure a small swift steamer with a capacity of 700 or 1,000 to assist the Jane Moseley on its regular trips, and to accommodate small excursion parties. I am very much gratified at the support given me by some of the monied people of my race in the city, and while the Baltimore people have urged upon me to form a company in that city, I feel justified in retaining the Jane Moseley here if there is business enough with the one hundred thousand colored people in Washington. The Jane Moseley will be on the Potomac next season.

"I can not fail to say a good word for the Baltimore people—they are a fine set of men and gave the Jane Moseley all it could do while up there.

MRS. H. W. ROBERTSON, THE ONLY LIVING SLATE WRITING MEDIUM AND CLAIRVOYANT, who can read from the sky. During the great show of the Ringling Brothers, in Videla, La., Sampson, one of the largest and oldest elephants in the world, became unruly and killed nine men during the day. Mrs. Robertson was sent for. She influenced the elephant by holding a charming seal bone in her hand and speaking nine holy words to the beast, and he obeyed.

Mrs. Robertson was born in Paris, France, and had eight years of English schooling. She was born a Fortune Teller. No female on earth can do what she can do. She gives you a spiritual charm that will cause your enemies to love you, make you successful in business, cause your family to live happily forever, drive all evil from your path, cause you to save money, and come into possession of property, cause you to gain back that which was stolen from you, cause the one that you love to love you unto death, and cause whatever you want to come to pass. In fact, make the dumb beast to love you. Her power excites the wonders. She is known all over the world as the queen of spiritual workers. WHAT PURE WHISKEY IS

Can easily be ascertained. Smell your drink before imbibing it. Better still, smell the drained glass. The least disagreeable or foul odor betrays poison in the whisky. Perfect distillation means the careful separation of the first and the end run from the still, the poisonous, impure, essential grain-oil, (phlegms, fainfs, fusel), from the middling product, good, potable spirit. Very likely the majority of cheap whiskies, either for economy or from ignorance, carry more or less of impurities. Such defective liquors could never be admitted to that grandest of stocks, and hence can not be obtained at the store of
